A MESSAGE

"Listen, my children, and you shall hear,"
Words of advice entering your ear.
"This above all to thy self be true"
And you won't have to watch what else you do.
"Good cheer is no hindrance to a good life"
So keep on smiling right through the strife.
"Burdens become light when cheerfully borne"
So let's learn to smile and not to mourn.
"There is not a moment without some duty"
So fill your life with service and beauty.
"Satan finds mischief for idle hands to do"
The moral—keep busy the whole day through.
"I've too grieved a heart to take tedious leave"
So I'll stop here—and now—I just believe.

OFFICERS

ARLENE MAY NASH, President
Tubby, Tubby—gosh we lubby
Eye on sailor lad for hubby? Now Maud!

CECILIA ELIZABETH FOSTER,
Vice-President

Cecilia's one of our glamour girls—
High arched brows and silken curls.

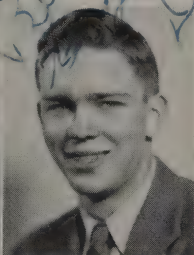

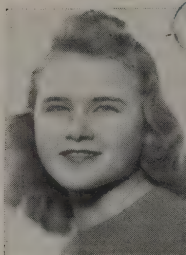

HAZEL JUNE COFFEY, Secretary
This world is happier far, I'd say
Since dainty June has tripped our way.

MINOR LYMAN JOHNSON, Treasurer
Wit + sarcasm × a little persuasion
= the other side of this equation!

THE BROOKVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS

FRANCES OWEN ABBOTT

Blue are her eyes, gold her hair;
Dimples, too—an extra snare!

DAVID LLOYD ALVIS

A smile in the eye, a quick-triggered tongue,
No bard could get all his selling points sung.

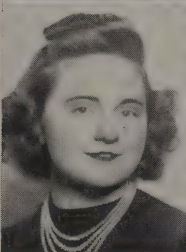

MAXWELL DEWEY BRANDT, A/C, USAAF

Get a snap-shot of the stratosphere
Lick the Japs and come back here!
Keep on the beam, Max!

CORINNE AILEEN BEASLEY

Ready for an argument? Corinne is at the bat;
She stars in all her classes, and that is that!

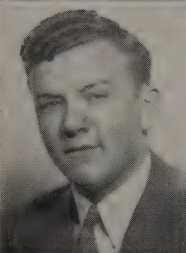

JERRY LEE BELL

Long silken lashes o'er dreamy brown eyes
That betray the answer before she replies.

JAMES SIMON BUMGARNER, SEAMAN, USN

Alas and alack! The senior girls' woe!
Why did so many enlist and go?
Keep 'em sailing, Simon!

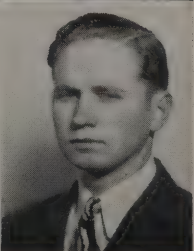

DAVID BURNS, SEAMAN, USN

Fears and sighs you left behind,
But a heart went with you, so don't you mind!
Atta boy, David!

REBECCA INDIA CLOWDIS

Poised and serene, gracious and gay,
Booby can steal all hearts her way.

DOROTHY ELIZABETH COUSINS

The gods were kind, complain we'll not!
Those sparkling eyes speak well for Dot!

PAXTON RALPH CANDLER

Tall and handsome and debonair;
Girls adore him—that I'd swear!

Best of Everything
to a darling girl
Dot.

Best of Everything
to a darling girl
Dot.

Best of Everything
to a darling girl
Dot.

Best of Everything
to a darling girl
Dot.

CLASS OF '44

CECIL KENNETH CRESS

His head is chucked full of knowledge that's sound,
But don't let him fool you—he gets around!

MARION GREY DEJARNETTE

Always upholding that which is right,
Keeping ideals untarnished and bright.

MILDRED JOYCE DRISKILL

She talks, chews gum—but gee! She's cute,
With plenty of sense, if the teachers but knew't.

FRANK PENDLETON DANCE, JR.

Healthy and hearty and happy—that's, Lard,
If you want lots of fun, get him for your pard.

CECIL WATSON DRISKILL

Untroubled, calm and unafraid,
He weighs the words that we have said.

MARGARET WILLIAMS ELDER

A regular little chatterbox—spritely, "chic" and gay,
But worth your time to listen to, she's got a line, I'll say!

MARY BROWN FEAGANS

Gentle and loving and sweet as can be;
We all on that point will surely agree.

EARL MCNAIR DRISKILL, SEAMAN, USN

It makes us unhappy, but still we are glad
Uncle Sam welcomed this brave sailor lad.
Here's to the Navy, Earl!

PVT. ROBERT WILLIAM HODGES, USMC

We miss you like a sound front tooth,
Right from the heart, Bob, that's the truth.
Tell it to the Marines!

DOROTHY LEE HAYES

Tall and slender—good sport, too,
Pretty and smart, yes—that is you!

THE BROOKVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS

LOIS MILDRED HENDRICK

Mildred is pensive, her thoughts are astray,
Along with her heart, for that lad—may I say?

ERNEST DUVAL LEFTWICH

A business man who leaves at noon
Will roll in wealth now pretty soon.

SELBERT MYERS, SEAMAN, USN

Corky was our glamour boy—
Now he yells out, "Ship ahoy!"
We're backing you up 100%, Corky old pal!

CHARLOTTE STANNARD HUTTER

Stately, fair and full of grace
Charlotte rates a princess' place. Lord yes!

VERLIE MAY JORDON

Tempt or bribe her you cannot
She rings that bell right on the dot!

DAVID PAUL OTTINGER, JR.

'Lectric lights, telephone, radioman!
If you can't fix it, David can!

ROBERT WALSA SNEAD

Maybe she does live 'way out, far;
What does it matter? He has a car.

JUANITA WATKINS MORRISON

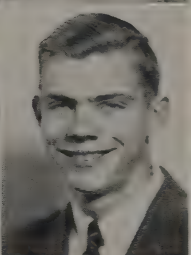

Giggle, giggle, can't be still,
Merry always—that's our Bill.

EVELYN JUNE NASH

If anyone asks, tell them for me
I'm strictly business, except when—Geel!

LEWIS CHRISTIAN SUTHARD

A twinkle of mischief gleams in his eye—
He might kiss a girl just to make her cry!

Philly and Bud

*Best of luck
to you always you
and thy million*

*Best of luck to a sweet girl
and you*

May be more in this year

Best luck to a world traveler

CLASS OF '44

WYATT WASHINGTON WILSON, JR.

Come one, come all! This ought to be a riot
Sophomore room and here comes Wyatt!

BLANCHE VERNELLE ROBERTSON

Modest and gentle, kind to all,
Ready to answer to any call.

NELLIE CLARE STAPLES

The "Home Ec" mirror sees much of me
We can't primp in class—oh misery!

ROBERT BURNS WOMACK

Bashful and handsome and girl-shy—but now
He can make excellent dates and how!

DON FISHER WOOD

He is little, but he's loud
Two like him would be a crowd!

FRANCES OSBORNE SUTHARD

Her voice is sweet, her manner kind,
Not a trouble on her mind.

HAZEL LEE WILKERSON

Whatever else may be said of me,
I surely can talk—yes sir-ee!

VIVIAN MINERVA WILLIAMS

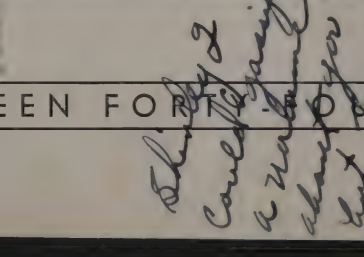

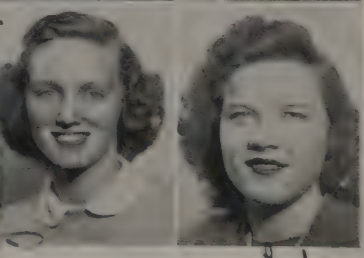

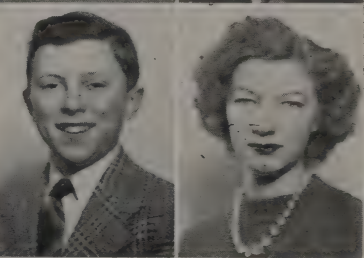

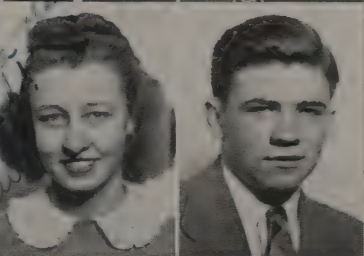

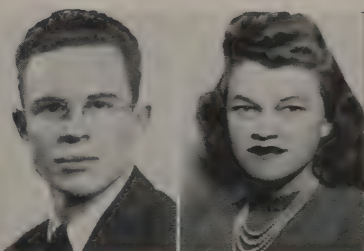

A smile bubbling up right out of the heart
Makes everyone love her right at the start.

GEORGIANA VIRGINIA WILSON

Just watch the blush steal over her face
So modest and sweet and full of grace.

GLADYS EVELYN YEATTS

Knock, knock! Who's there?
Pretty little girl with golden hair.

CLASS HISTORY

---

FRESHMAN—In the year 1940, in the month of September, eighty-two green, but eager, freshmen started to work for their high school diplomas. We were fascinated by changing classes and thought ourselves grown-up ladies and gentlemen, but were soon termed mere "rats." The Sophomores invited us to a skating party that was real fun. We had many different sports that year in which the more athletic freshman took part! Thus passed our Freshman year at B. H. S!

SOPHOMORE—Our number had decreased to seventy-two but the class was still eager and gay! Miss Whitlow and Miss Wilson were promoted with us. We became so ambitious that through the sale of hot dogs enough money was made to paint our homerooms. The Bee Club was organized and five dazed, but proud, sophomores were tapped as charter members. They were Rebecca Clowdis, Evelyn Nash, Charlotte Hutter, Selbert Myers and George Torian. We regretted losing our agriculture teacher, Mr. V. B. Cauley, to the Army, but much to our delight, tall, lanky Mr. Holberton became a member of our high school faculty. Thus ended our Sophomore year!

JUNIORS—Fifty-three strong, we started a gay, happy and busy year. Physical Education was loads of fun after we once got over our soreness. In December we gave the play, "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose." With an original stage set by Thurman Sprouse and the superb(?) acting of fourteen members of the class we thought we had something "super." Then came April 30 with the Junior-Senior Banquet at the Y. M. C. A. May Day decorations, good food, good music, and a wonderful time! The greatest thrill came when we ordered our rings and personal cards. We couldn't wait until fall when we would be Seniors. It seemed as though fall would never come.

SENIORS—We realized at the very beginning that we were truly war-time Seniors, because so many of the dear familiar faces were missing and many more would soon go. We were Seniors, however, "high and mighty," and just a little proud. A new homeroom teacher, Mrs. A. B. Powell, soon won our love and respect. A Halloween party was held to promote the sale of bonds and stamps and it went over with a bang. Arlene Nash has worn a slick path to the office with the same question each day. "Have the rings come yet?" The answer is always "no," but we can still hope, can't we? On March 14 the Juniors gave us a banquet, followed by a dance at the Oakwood Country Club. Everyone there looked his loveliest. That's one evening we'll never forget. "Boots and Her Buddies," presented March 30, as the Senior play was a great success. There was such a crowd that some even had to be turned away. Lyman Johnson, as the "widow," had all the boys raving. Six of our number have left to serve their country. Simon Bumgarner, Earl Driskill, Selbert Myers and David Burns are in the Navy. Max Brandt is in the Air Corps and Robert Hodges is in the Marines. Billy Tomes is doing defense work. We know that they are all doing a grand job. Our school days draw to an end but we will go on with our motto in mind, "Consider the past, pay attention to the present, look ahead to the future."

—Charlotte Hutter and Evelyn Nash, Class Historians.

BROOKVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

ROUTE No. 2

TIMBERLAKE ROAD

LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

---

APRIL 6, 1944.

DEAR MACK,

How's the Admiral? I guess you keep pretty busy, but do you ever stop to think about Brookville? I still remember Miss Parker and Miss White struggling with one hundred of us as freshmen. I bet you don't have anyone like either of them instructing in the Navy. How we did argue when the Bee Club was organized and freshmen were not eligible! The skating party the sophomores gave us was salve to our wounded feelings, but we were bruised and sore for days after. Remember what a trial math was? I'll bet more of our math was unknown than known.

Were you in Mr. Hick's sophomore home-room? He pounded the desk then. (And he still does.) Miss Carlton's sophomore class was always getting by with something but we never could. We really showed them how to bring in tin cans though, remember all those five hundred you brought in on the school bus? Sophomores really put that scrap drive across in a big way.

Didn't we have fun producing "Girl Shy?" I can still hear Miss Whitlow say, "Think yourself into that part. Be Birdie La Verne." And to think we did two performances! It was a real success. After that play nobody in the cast was "girl shy!" The play proceeds really financed a good banquet. Miss Whitlow and Miss Fauntleroy saw that it went over with a bang. We juniors showed the rest of the high school how to collect scrap paper, didn't we? Over two tons! That shows you the juniors set the pace for the rest of the high school. As Arlene Nash would say: "Nothing cheap about us!"

Mack, your old school bus is still chugging along, had one flat and just rode on home on it! Mack, not only the juniors but everyone in high school is working with one aim, to see you and all the other boys come home really soon.

A school mate,

BARBARA WILSON.

- 19—Lyman Johnson failed to run out of gas!! and got slapped!
- 24—Mrs. Smith was the star of the program presented by the Faculty to spur our stamp buying.

DECEMBER

- 17—Juniors give play.
- 21—Juniors given another chance to succeed on play.
- 22—Seniors reluctantly leave for holidays.
- 23—Students rewarded by Mrs. Giles with a party for their efforts.
- 27—Seniors still looking for rings.

JANUARY

- 2—Happy students return to work; others return also.
- 16—FFA and FHV give dance. Certain couples could not be located.
- 17—Miss Fauntleroy is finally old enough to vote.
- 22—Students request exams.
- 23—Faculty grants request.
- 28—Students regret request.

FEBRUARY

- 4—Bobby Morrison has replaced Lyman Johnson in Betty Porter's heart.
- 6—Party given for Pmts. Hodges and Brandt. Seniors show talents as "card sharks."
- 9—Sam Lawhorne realizes he's being followed. Considers going to Alaska.
- 16—Lawrence Whitney writes on "Ode to Rats," inspired by Mrs. Smith's "family."

MARCH

- 1—David Burns, Mack Peters, Selbert Myers, and Edgar Pickeral give up dull school life for the more exciting life of a sailor.
- 2—June is heard singing, "Oh, for the life of a Sailor's Wife"!
- 4—Juniors request permission of Seniors to give Junior-Senior banquet.
- 15—Permission to give banquet given by Seniors.
- 16—Seniors reluctantly attend banquet. (Recruiting officer rescued (?) (Ed.'s Note) from Miss Fauntleroy by Seniors.)
- 21—Faculty sees students straying from the straight and narrow path and engages private detectives in the form of teachers to straighten us out. (Teachers will be paid for teaching also.)
- 24—Cecil Cress has replaced Bobbie Morrison in Betty Porter's heart.
- 29—Sonny Womack has finally broken away from the bachelor's life and asked "Becky" for a date.
- 30—Senior play presented. Not worthy of a second chance for success. (Junior class opinion.)

APRIL

- 3—Miss Anderson broke her finger and alarmed High School.
- 4—The "D" in Don Wood's name has been changed to "Mor."
- 6—Mrs. Smith and her biology class rejected from State Colony.
- 7—Easter vacation and the annual went to press!!!

Dear Shirley,

Here's to one of the sweetest girls I have ever known. You are really wonderful and I love you. I love the Maxims, especially Brit. Robert Faggers.

Love,
Gay.

Dearest Shirley,

just to let you know how much I love I'll give you George - - . If I had him! No. I love and love and love you always.

p.s. Hope you enjoyed your 7 years on island!

You're my darling,
Eileen

Dear Shirley,

you know I can't tell you how wonderful I think you are.
These I didn't quite realize it until just lately and now I fully realize how sweet you really are. Don't forget me -
Love & everything
Eileen
